4. WDR Update

- a. Discuss any recent updates and how agencies are responding to the changes.

5. Recent Requests for Information

SacSewer, Jay Cha: I'm currently reviewing decision-making frameworks for business case evaluations. Given your experience in this field, I am reaching out to see if you can share any documentation on the methods you use to select or evaluate alternatives when selecting a solution to a project.

I'm particularly interested in tools that balance technical, economic, social, and environmental factors to ensure long-term sustainability.

Do you have any examples of tools or frameworks that you could share or recommend?

6. CASSE Officers Update
